

ANNEX A - STUDENT PROJECT SPONSORSHIP ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

FOR COMPANIES (the “acknowledgement”)

As per the Policy On Intellectual Property (VPRGS-9)

Last updated: January 16, 2015

Thank you for your interest in sponsoring or otherwise supporting student project activities at Concordia University (the “University”). Your sponsorship and/or participation in the project described in Schedule A hereto (the “Project”) is subject to your understanding and acceptance of the following terms and conditions:

1. Student intellectual property, as such term is defined in the university’s Policy on Intellectual Property (VPRGS-9), available for reference on the university’s website, and other project results are not the work of the university and are provided “as is” without any representation or warranties whatsoever, whether express or implied, including, but not necessarily limited to any warranty as to fitness for particular purposes, merchantability or non-infringement.
2. You hereby indemnify and hold harmless the University, its governors, agents, employees, students and volunteers for any and all harm, loss, liability, claims or damages which may arise from the use by the Company, any of its customers, licensees or affiliates, of any Student Intellectual Property or any other Project results.
3. Company may not use the University’s name, or any trade or service mark(s) owned or controlled by the University (the “University’s Marks”) in connection with any Student Intellectual Property. Additionally, the Company may not use University’s Marks, or the names of any employee, officer, director, governor, agent or representative of the University, in any advertising, publicity, or commercialization activity without the prior written approval of the authorized representative of the University. Any such requests for authorization to use the University’s Mark shall be submitted in writing to the University’s Vice President, Research and Graduate Studies.
4. I declare that I have the legal authority to sign this Acknowledgement on behalf of the Company.
